PISTACHIO PUDDING COOKIES

Ingredients:

- 1 cup unsalted butter, softened
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 package pistachio pudding mix
- 2 large eggs
- 2 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 tsp baking soda
- 1 cup chopped pistachios

Instructions:

- Preheat the oven: Preheat your oven to 350°F (175°C). Line a baking sheet with parchment paper or grease it lightly.
- Cream butter and sugar: In a large mixing bowl, cream together the softened butter and sugar until light and fluffy. This will take about 2-3 minutes with a hand or stand mixer.
- Add pudding mix and eggs: Add the pistachio pudding mix and eggs to the butter-sugar mixture. Beat until everything is well combined.
- Mix in dry ingredients: Gradually add the all-purpose flour and baking soda, mixing until the dough comes together.
- Stir in pistachios: Stir in the chopped pistachios until evenly distributed throughout the dough.
- Form the cookies: Drop spoonfuls of dough onto the prepared baking sheet, spacing them about 2 inches apart.
- Bake the cookies: Bake in the preheated oven for 10-12 minutes, or until the edges are golden and the centers are set.
- Cool and serve: Allow the cookies to cool on the baking sheet for a few minutes before transferring them to a wire rack to cool completely. Serve and enjoy!

MEET BEAR!

Hi everyone, I'm Bear! I'm four years old and love bird watching, helping Mom work on her laptop (I'm very purr-professional) and drinking out of Mom's Stanley tumbler so much that I now have my own! I hate when mom plays her guitar, I'm deathly afraid of vacuums and I get really sad in the winter because all the birds fly away. I never leave the house but sometimes my moms let me out on the balcony on a warm day so you can always wave at me but I might ignore you because I'm scared of all people, dogs and other living creatures (not my bird friends though). Guess the term scaredy cat had to originate somewhere.

SPRING IS ON THE WAY!
